the "interested persons" annually signs a statement which affirms that such person has complied with the conflict-of-interest policy. "Key Person" means any person, other than a Director, Trustee or Officer, whether or not an employee of the corporation, who (a) has responsibilities, or exercises powers or influence over the corporation as a whole similar to the responsibilities, powers or influence of the Trustees, Directors and Officers; (b) manages the corporation, or a segment of the corporation that represents a substantial portion of the activities, assets, income or expenses of the corporation; or (c) alone or with others controls or determines a substantial portion of the corporation's capital expenditures or operating budget. For purposes of this policy, key person shall include the following employees: President/Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, and Vice Presidents.

The Corporate Compliance Committee shall review the completed conflict of interest disclosure statement of all interested persons at the time of their submission and provide the board with copies of the disclosure statements of interested person that note exceptions or otherwise provide information concerning relationships, interest, or arrangements of the interest person.

Disclosures can be made through the annual conflict of interest disclosure statement required under Article VI and at any time when a conflict otherwise arises. After disclosure of a potential conflict of interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interest person to clarify or obtain additional information relevant to the financial interest, he or she shall leave the board or committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon.
